DESIGNATED COUNTRY DIRECTOR FOR WA. PEACE CORPS HEADQUARTERS POSITION,

GERALD A. McINTOSH.

"It was difficult to leave Swaziland but this promises to be a challenging experience in Washington," says Gerald A. McIntosh, director designate of Africa Operations for the Peace Corps. Since mid 1981, McIntosh had been serving as Swaziland country director for the Peace Corps where he directed the activities of about 100 volunteers.

In his new position he will supervise the activities of more than 2,500 Peace Corps Volunteers serving in 23 countries. The Peace Corps has 5,000 volunteers serving in 60 countries around the world.

"Africa Operations is the largest geographical segment of Peace Corps' overseas operations and also has the greatest potential for expansion," maintains McIntosh, a native of Detroit, Mich.

McIntosh, 40, is an educator who has been active in working with gifted children and in desegregation programs, urban studies and school management in Michigan. Prior to becoming Peace Corps country director in Swaziland he supervised the operation of a federally-funded school for gifted and talented children in Inkster, Mich.

"My skills in management, administration, program development and planning will be beneficial as I anticipate continuing in the Africa Operations' tradition of excellence," he says.

From 1975 to 1980, McIntosh was the director of the Office of Desegregation for the Detroit Public School System. As Chairman of the Urban and Ethnic Studies Department of Eastern Michigan University in Ypsilanti from 1973 to 1975, McIntosh helped develop the university's urban studies program.

In the early 1970s, he was a professor at Merrill-Palmer Institute in Detroit and an assistant professor at Northeastern Illinois State University in Chicago. He was an administrative assistant at the College of Urban Studies at Michigan State University in East Lansing for a year beginning in July 1969. Previously, he was a research and teaching assistant in the College of Education at Michigan State.

A 1963 education graduate of Central State University in Wilberforce, Ohio, McIntosh received a Master's Degree in 1967 from Eastern Michigan - University and his Ph.D. in 1970 from Michigan-State University.

McIntosh started his career in education in 1963 as a physical education and health instructor in the public schools in Flint, Mich. He later became community school director for the Roosevelt Elementary School in Flint and director of the Youth Educational Services Program in the public school system of Jackson, Mich.

President of the Michigan Equal Educational opportunity Network in 1977, McIntosh was a member of the executive committee of the Detroit Coalition for Peaceful Integration in the mid-1970s.

He is a member of the American Association of University Progessors, the National Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development, the Michigan Education Association, the National Education Association, the American Association of Higher Education and the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

U.P.S. NAMES ADELPHIAN MADRIGAL CONDUCTOR.

Dr. Paul W. Schultz of Michigan State University has been named conductor of the Adelphian Concert Choir and the University Madrigal Singers at the University of Puget-Sound.

Since 1978, Dr. Schultz has been an instructor at Michigan State University and conductor of the 60 voice Men's Glee Club. He also serves as director of Choral Activities for East Lansing High School, a post he has held for more than a decade.

Frequently called upon to act as an adjudicator, clinician and guest conductor, he is the founder and conductor of the East Lansing Arts Chorale, a 20-member adult group, and is director of Church music for the Edgewood United Church in East Lansing.

Dr. Schultz, 43, is currently serving a four-year term on the National Board of Directors of the Intercollegiate Musical Council. He has held state positions with the American Choral Directors Association, the Michigan Music Educators Association and the Michigan School Vocal Association, serving as president of the latter body from 1971 to 1973.

Groups he has conducted have performed at state, regional and national gatherings of music educators and other professionals.

NEW EEOC CHAIRMAN GIVES VIEWS ON EFFECTING EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY.

WASHINGTON, D.C. -- Clarence Thomas, chairman of the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC), said here yesterday that, "Despite the progress of the last 25 years" of civil rights enforcement, "serious problems still exist" with respect to the socioeconomic condition of minorities and women.

His remarks were contained in a 20-minute statement before a conference on equal employment opportunity, cosponsored by the Industrial Relations Research Association and the Bureau of National Affairs.

During the past decade, he said, the number of poor blacks and poor black families increased and the unemployment rate for minority group members rose. (It was 7.9 percent in 1957 and 13.2 in 1980)

Chairman Thomas also said, "While Hispanics made up 5.3 percent of the total work population, they are 2.6 percent of the professional and technical workers and 8.5 of the laborers. He said, "Women earn less than 60 cents for each dollar men earn."

In terms of the impact of affirmative action effors, he said that members of affected groups "who are the best prepared are the beneficiaries of programs and policies which are, or should be, designed to help the least prepared." He cited a recent Washington Post article which concluded that affirmative action "has not affected broad traditional patterns of inequality."

He said that to say the EEOC "will pursue vigorous enforcement of civil rights laws does not mean that we will accept -- uncritically and unthinkingly -- present approaches and assumptions about civil rights programs. There are countless examples of programs set up to assist minorities for which there is no proof of effective results."

Chairman Thomas used information gleaned from his previous position as head of the civil rights office of the Department of Education to show that despite women receiving nearly half of all bachelor degrees, they are overwhelmingly in traditional female professions, such as education and fine and applied arts. In addition, women receive only 23.4 percent of the bachelor degrees awarded in business and management and 4.5 percent of bachelor degrees in engineering, he said.

"Twenty-eight years after the Brown (V. Board of Eucation) decision," Chairman Thomas said, "the evidence on minority education at the elementary, secondary and college levels provides no reason to believe that busing or proportional representation is the route to educational equality." It has been suggested, he said, that Brown's "primary purpose was not to see to it, as we have believed, that minorities get an education, but that they sit next to whites."

ALL CITY HI JINKS VARIETY FASHION SHOW.

The Drama Department of the Al Davies Boy's - Club presents "Hi-Jinks" Variety and Fashion Show, consisting of local talent from the Tacoma area. The cast is ticking and ready to explode their creative ability to the community.

Although the cast consists of teen-agers and young adults, the older generation should make way for a storm of popping, singing, jazz, dancing, and many other acts.

There will be a small combo lead by Tacoma's Paul Richardson on Key-boards and synthesizer. Al Hunter will pluck his bass guitar while Jerry Davis maintains the beat on drums. The band will accompany the singers and K.T.O.Y's Don Dowell will spin the records for the dance acts and Fashion Show. This Fashion Show will not be your ordinary fashion show. Fashion Show coordinator, Genoltra LeVert, expressed her views of the production of "Hi-Jinks" "In rehearsal, everything is falling into place, the models are excellent, the singers and dancers are improving and the band is ready to steal the show." I think Tacoma is in for a treat." The fashions are from the Bottoms Women's Apparel and Bernie's Mens Wear located in the Tacoma Mall.

Rodney Clark, the Director of "Hi-Jinks" commented on the question of who is singing, dancing and modeling. "I feel that it would be totally unfair to mention any member of the cast without mentioning all of them, so just tell everyone to come see for themselves!!"

The show begins June 24, and runs through the 25th and 26th, beginning at 9:30 p.m. and lasting until 1:00 a.m.

OF SELF-LOVE AND AVOIDING OFFENCES

PROVERBS 27, 1-15

BOAST not thyself of tomorrow; for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth.

Let another man praise thee, and not thine own mouth; a stranger, and not thine own lips.

A stone is heavy, and the sand weighty; but a fool's wrath is heavier than them both.

Wrath is cruel, and anger is outrageous; but who is able to stand before envy?

Open rebuke is better than secret love.

Faithful are the wounds of a friend; but the Kisses of an enemy are deceitful.

The full soul loatheth an honeycomb; but to the hungry soul every bitter thing is sweet.

As a bird that wandereth from her nest, so is a man that wandereth from his place.

Ointment and perfume rejoice the heart: so doth the sweetness of a man's friend by hearty counsel.

Thine own friend, and thy father's friend, forsake not; neither go into thy brother's house in the day of thy calamity: for better is a neighbour that is near than a brother far off.

My son, be wise, and my heart glad, that I may answer him that reproacheth me.

A prudent man foreseeth the the evil, and hideth himself; but the simple pass on, and are punished.

Take his garment that is surety for a stranger, and take a pledge of him for a strange woman.

He that blesseth his friend with a loud voice, rising early in the morning, it shall be counted a curse to him.

YOU CAN TELL

You can tell my Jesus loves me, Because he died for all.

My Jesus died on the cross, With open arms and love for all, He died that day in a glorious way, A debt he peid until this day.

You can tell my Jesus loves me, Because he died for all.

He took my soul and made me whole, And place my name on his roll, I promised him than and their, That I would serve him anywhere.

You can tell my Jesus Loves me, Because he died for all.

IRS ESTIMATED TAX FORMS DELAYED

SEATTLE, WASHINGTON....Some individual taxpayers who began paying quarterly estimated tax payments for the first time this year may not receive vouchers in time for making their installment which is due June 15, said Michael J. Quinn, Seattle IRS District Director.
An unexpected increase in the number of taxpayers filing 1982 declarations of estimated tax resulted in a shortage of 1040ES voucher envelope packages that are mailed to taxpayers. Additional forms are being printed but their delayed mailing may result in some first time estimated taxpayers not receiving them soon enough to make the June 15 payment.

NEW UNEMPLOYMENT TAX ONP FISHERMEN AND ALIENS.

SEATTLE, WASHINGTON--Compensation paid for services of certain fishing crew members and for aliens engaged in agricultural work on a temporary basis is now subject to federal unemployment taxes (FUTA), Michael J. Quinn, Seattle IRS District Director announced.

Before 1982, compensation paid to a boat's crew for catching fish or other aquatic animal life was exempt from FUTA taxes if the compensation was a share of the boat's catch or cash proceeds from the sale of a share of the catch. The boat's operating crew generally had to be fewer than 10 individuals. Compensation paid to aliens admitted to the United States to perform agricultural work on a temporary basis under the Immigration and Nationality Act also was exempt from FUTA taxes before 1982.

These exemptions have not been extended by legislation. Employers should treat such payments as taxable wages when they determine FUTA tax liability beginning with the first calendar quarter of 1982 Penalties for failure to deposit federal unemployment taxes timely for compensation paid for services of aliens engaged in agricultural work will not be assessed until after June-30, 1982.

If legislation is enacted extending the exemtions, employers may file a claim for refund on form 843 or claim for the overpayment by making a reduced deposit of FUTA tax for a subsequent calendar quarter.

REQUEST FOR QUALIFICATIONS TO DEMONSTRATE THE CAPABILITY TO PREPARE, CONDUCT and PROCESS DATA RELATING TO AN ON-BOARD TRANSIT RIDERSHIP SURVEY

In October of 1982, Pierce Transit plans to conduct an on-board survey in order to gain a better understanding of our ridership, travel patterns, the nature of transfers at transit centers and elsewhere, and identification of future service needs and options. A wide range of patron characteristics will be surveyed, including information on the origin and destination of the trip, number of transfers, mode of access to the bus, type of fare paid, purpose of trip, transit trips per week, income, auto availability, age and sex.

Pierce Transit is soliciting qualifications from consultants to demonstrate their experience and abilities relating to preparing and conducting an on-board ridership survey and processing data gathered by such a survey. A review of the qualifications will result in the most qualified firms or team being invited to submit a proposal and be invited for an interview.

A copy of the Request for Qualifications may be obtained by contacting Pat Williams at Pierce Transit's Office, 1235 South Sprague Avenue, Tacoma, Washington 98405 or by calling (206) 593-6269.

DEPARTMENT OF LICENSING

OLYMPIA - The Department of Licensing has taken disciplinary action against two person licensed under the state regulations for funeral directors and embalmers.

The State Board of Funeral Directors and Embalmers heard the cases of Darrell W. - Smith and William A.- Allen, both of Seattle. Smith was charged with first-degree theft for removing rings from the body of a deceased person. He did not appear for his hearing and the board revoked his appretice funeral director and apprentice embalmer licenses.

An incident at a Tacoma nursing home resulted in a written reprimand from the board for William Allen. He was charged with irreverential handling of the body of a deceased person. According to the board, Allen's conduct was "uncalled for, unwarranted and unprofessional". The board informed Allen that if a similar violation occurs, further action will be imposed.

Third Prize... A trip to Reno.

We will furnish details of the other Solidarity Day events and how your union can participate as plans progress.
